Who we are

Company history

A family business, A.G. Axton & Sons (Wholesale Limited) are wholesale greengrocers benefiting from over 100 years in the market place and are currently run by fourth-generation Axtons, Andrew and Anthony Axton. We supply the South of England with first class fresh fruit, salad, vegetables and dairy products sourced whenever possible from local growers.

Fresh produce

As the Souths leading supplier of locally grown produce, all our goods delivered are of the freshest quality possible. Each order is treated with the same level of professionalism and service. From bistros, colleges, corporate hospitality specialists, hospitals, nursing homes, public houses and restaurants to schools and universities. No matter what the volume our fleet of temperature controlled transport enable us to deliver a friendly, convenient, reliable service, tailor-made to your business.

Sustainable, accredited suppliers

We pride ourselves on sourcing and supporting local growers when this is possible and when their produce is in season. As we purchase directly from the grower, we pass on the saving to our customers. Fresh produce delivered at very competitive prices.

Our team

An exceptional team that are fully trained in the customer's requirement. They are very conversant in advising on seasonal product choice, delivery times, pack sizes, locally sourced items, ordering quantities for menus and availability of non stocked products. We aim to support any new customers with frequent visits for the first couple of deliveries to ensure that our team is delivering the expected level of quality and service.

We guarantee you won't be disappointed.
